

Week of March 24, 2024

From Woody: My apologies for the late decision to cancel worship on Palm Sunday. I had no idea that there were trees down, roads closed and a dangerous situation until about 7am. I Hope everyone is okay.

We move ahead into Holy Week with a Communion Service on Thursday night at 7 and then an early Easter Service at 7am at Blue Herron Farm (on astroturf) at 266 Saunders Hill Rd. and then Easter Breakfast at the church from 8 until 9 or whenever the food runs out and then worship at 10. We will also have envelopes for the One Great Hour of Sharing offering available Sunday for this great offering to help people in crisis and poverty around the world.

I again apologize for Sunday's early confusion and look forward to seeing everyone on Maundy Thursday for a special communion service and then on Easter morning. The storm was certainly bad and trying but certainly nothing compared to the events of the first Holy Week. We will celebrate the wonderful news of Resurrection on Sunday after retelling the story of the days before the first Easter on Thursday night. I hope to see you there.
